Al- Ashraf Secondary School for Girls

FIQH Year 9 – 4th September 2018 – 21st December 2018

TERM 1 & 2– AL HADIYATUL LINNISA
HAIDH – Menstruation • Define Buloogh (puberty) • Define Haidh, Mubtadeah, Mu'taadah & Mutahayyarah • Haidh & Salah • Haidh & Saum (fasting) • Haidh, Hajj & Umrah – Ihraam, Tawaaf-e-Qudoom, Widaa & Ziryaarat • Haidh & the Qur'an • Haidh & Zikr • Haidh & the Masjid • Ghusl (bath) after Haidh	Aims, SMSC & differentiation: ALL students will be able to: • Understand Arabic terminology & recall meanings. • Understanding the rulings pertaining to Haidh in each situation (Salah, Qur'an, entering the Masjid etc) MOST students will be able to: • Understand fully & explain the rulings pertaining to Haidh in each situation (Salah, Qur'an, entering the Masjid etc) • Recall the du'aas of Zikr which can be recited during Haidh SOME students will be able to: • Evaluate & reflect on how & why attaining puberty, as a whole, encourages self-discipline as well as responsible & mature behaviour • Explain how the divine rewards mentioned for Zikr during Haidh (especially at Salah times) are a means of establishing an affiliation with God & why it helps to inculcate God consciousness within oneself.

Tasks: Draw up a clearly labelled chart or table which can be used to record Haidh habits	SMSC (Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural development) • Haidh as a means of motivation to adhere to & live by social dictates – in the same manner Muslims abide by the teachings of the Shariah (Islamic law) • Haidh as a means of encouraging responsible & mature behaviour - in light of the Qur'an & Ahadith • Haidh as a means of developing good, social conduct & becoming a model citizen in the community • Zikr as a means of establishing proximity & creating a unique spiritual bond between worshipper & God.
Assessment: Teacher assessment of classwork	Literacy: Stressing on SPAG in written work Numeracy: Calculating & recording Haidh cycles & habits Citizenship: Learning how to become a good, model citizen in the community Science: Biology – physical changes to the body as a result of puberty